New Cursillo Facebook Page

The Secretariat, at its February 2025 meeting, agreed to create a private Facebook group to foster better communication across the diocese.

We encourage people who join this new group to post Cursillo activities in it. Post prayer requests (with consent). Basically, anything Cursillo-related, share it.

Although this is a private Facebook group for Cursillistas already living their Fourth Day, remember that families share computers and accounts so please don't openly discuss the four secrets of the Cursillo weekend.

You can access the group by clicking on the "Facebook" menu option in the top-right corner of the Birmingham Cursillo website home page.

When you click it, you will be asked to answer three questions so the group moderators can validate you are a Birmingham Diocese Cursillista. The moderator will then review and approve/decline your request.

Hope to see you in the new group. De Colores!
