Secretariat Elections

Each year in the Fall two members of the Secretariat are replaced for new 3yr terms. This year, our School of Leaders Chair (Robin Kutsor) and our 3-Day Chair (George Lake) will be rolling off. The position of Secretary also still needs to be backfilled for a remaining two year term.

The position descriptions are:

School of Leaders Chair will convoke, preside at, prepare and direct all activities relating to the School of Leaders. The SoL chairperson shall select the doctrinal and technical presentations and presenters for the School to prepare leaders of the movement both technically and spiritually so as to advance the Cursillo Movement within the diocese. The Chair shall also determine and schedule necessary Diocesan, Regional and National Workshops.

Cursillo (3-Day) Chair shall be responsible for the overall coordination of the Three-Day Weekend and associated activities including Clausura. The Chair shall recommend to the Secretariat for approval, the Rector/Rectora and Angel for each Three-Day Weekend. See Leader's Manual page 101-119. The Cursillo Chair shall be an ex-rector/rectora.

The Secretary shall keep accurate minutes of all Secretariat meetings. distribute the Minutes promptly to Secretariat members via email, or regular mail if necessary. After the Minutes have been approved by the Secretariat, keep copies of the Minutes on file or disk, and hard copy folder for referral at meetings.

Feedback/Suggestions may be sent to bhmhoosier@bellsouth.net, or any Secretariat member.

A more detailed description of duties is available on our website in the ByLaws document. If interested in serving, please contact a member of the Secretariat.
